MISSION

Three-fold mission: to produce top-notch, compelling work; to develop new plays and musicals; and to find fresh, bold ways of bringing new audiences into the theatre, especially young people.

HUMANITIES EXPERTISE

Considered to be the fastest growing art's venue in all of Berkshire County with outstanding international responses to the quality of production as well as advanced education programs put into place. This group wants to create the most nuanced performance possible and it shows: since first opening- the company has produced 28 new works, 16 of which have moved on to New York and major regional theatres around the country. The company truly believes that new work is the heart and soul of theatre.

HUMANITIES RESOURCES & PROJECTS

PROGRAMS

- Playwright Mentoring Program (PMP) is a theatre program for young people ages 13-19 who have stories to share and things to say. Groups meet once a week from October- April. The group will create and perform an original play based on stories and experiences from their own lives. This program is free and often attended by teenagers with home issues and the plays often give voice to those struggles..
- KidsAct! is a theatre program for students ages 7-10. This 2 week theatre camp will focus on building acting and improvisation skills through fun theatre games, as well as the creation of an original play to be performed for parents and friends on the final day of the program.
- Professional Internship Program invites individuals interested in theater to intern at the company's permanent home. Housing and a $100 weekly stipend will be given.
- Musical Theatre Conservatory is a 10-week pre-professional training program offers theatre students training in the areas of performance, direction, and choreography.
