MISSION

Listed on the National Register of Historic Places, and declared an official project of "Save America's Treasures," a Millennium program of Hillary Rodham Clinton and the National Trust for Historic Preservation, Ventfort Hall is the home of The Museum of the Gilded Age.

The mission of Ventfort Hall Mansion and Gilded Age Museum is to continue partaking in the restoration of the hall, one of the approximately seventy-five so-called "Cottages" built in Lenox in the late 19th century when the village became a popular Gilded Age resort.

HUMANITIES EXPERTISE

Ventfort Hall and the Gilded Age Museum uses its rich, historical background as a means to interpret the great changes that occurred in American life, industry, and society during the Nineteenth Century through Lectures, exhibits, theatrical performances and other events.
