DAY OF DIALOGUE

FROM ART TO IMPACT

FEATURING CARTOONIST
LIZA DONNELLY

NORMAN ROCKWELL MUSEUM

Kicking off the 3-Part Unlikely Conversations Series, MCLA-IAH is collaborating with Norman Rockwell Museum and guest artist, Liza Donnelly, to discuss art as a catalyst for social change. In her exhibit, Comic Relief, Donnelly explores the depth of cartoons, and their power to confront difficult questions and reflect on the human condition. IAH intern, Drew Thomas will discuss these concepts with Donnelly in a live-streamed event, and prompt the artist to talk about the opportunities art provides to impact change and obstacles an artist may encounter in doing so.

ART+ PRACTICE OF SELF CARE

2020

BREAKOUT SESSION #3
1:30PM-2:30PM

This workshop invites participants to explore creative strategies for self-care through the power of poetry, mindfulness meditation, and creating opportunities for meaningful connection through dialogue. By creating and protecting this space, we are prioritizing healing, community, and joy to advance equity-centered change at MCLA.
