#FACULTYFELLOW FEATURE

In Spring 2020, MCLA Faculty Anthony Gengarelly, Greg Scheckler, Dale Fink partnered with the Jessica Park Project to introduce inclusion, diversity, equity and access (IDEA) into the classroom through the art of those "outside", or excluded from mainstream culture. Students were introduced to the world of "outsider artists" by considering the various conditions which have isolated them, and they studied the art those artists have created to validate their lives. By the end of the semester, students' works and learnings were curated into a book titled "The Outsider Art Project" to be shared with the community.
